Choose the best answers to fill in the blanks.

What will the city of the future look like? This question has been asked so many times over the last 500 years – and answered inconsequently an equal number of times – that we can be sure of (1) _____ thing only: no one can predict accurately (2) _____ cities will 50 or 500 years from now.

The reason is simple. Cities change continually. For over fifty years they have changed (3) _____ rapidly that the oldest residents will remember a time (4) _____ their city seemed to belong not just to another era (5) _____ to a different dimension.

This is true both of planned and unplanned cities. Planned cities such as New York and Paris, (6) ______ are closely organized on a girl or diagram of streets and avenues, have effectively burst at the seams this century, (7) ______ unplanned cities such as London, Tokyo and Los Angeles have grow just as dramatically. (8) _____ their centers might remain much as they were many years ago, their suburbs have spread (9) _____ the tentacles of an octopus.
